

THE DODGE CITY TIMES.

DODGE CITY, SATURDAY, APRIL 5.

A young man was recently examined at Larned for admission to the bar, and was asked, on his final examination, what principle of law prevented a woman from bringing an action against her seducer. His reply was, "contributory negligence." This was not as grave a blunder, however, as that made by an attorney at Cottonwood Falls. He had brought a divorce suit, wherein the husband was plaintiff, and during the pendency of the action, the defendant, the wife, died. The attorney asked to have the suit revived in the name of the administrator of the deceased. — [Great Bend Tribune.]

LITERARY REVOLUTION.

The era of cheap and good books has certainly come. The "Acme" edition of "Chamber's Cyclopaedia of English Literature," eight handy and beautiful volumes, nearly 3,500 pages, elegantly bound in cloth, for $2.50, is what the American Book Exchange, 55 Beekman street, N. Y., offer to subscribers who buy this month. Specimen volume, complete in itself, post-paid, for 43 cents. Nearly 50,000 volumes sold in the past three months. Specimen pages and terms to clubs sent free.

CARBOLINE!

A Deodorized extract of Petroleum,

The Only Article that Will Restore Hair on Bald Heads.

What the World has been Wanting for Centuries.

The greatest discovery of our day, so far as a large portion of humanity is concerned, is CARBOLINE, an article prepared from petroleum, and which effects a complete and radical cure in case of baldness, or where the hair, owing to diseases of the scalp, has become thin and tends to fall out. It is also a speedy restorative, and while its use secures a luxuriant growth of hair, it also brings back the natural color, and gives the most complete satisfaction in the using. The falling out of the hair, the accumulations of dandruff, and the premature change in color are all evidences of a diseased condition of the scalp and the glands which nourish the hair. To arrest these causes the article used must possess medicinal as well as chemical virtues, and the change must begin under the scalp to be of permanent and lasting benefit. Such an article is CARBOLINE, and, like many other wonderful discoveries, it is found to consist of elements almost in their natural state. Petroleum oil is the article which is made to work such extraordinary results; but it is after it has been chemically treated and completely deodorized that it is in proper condition for the toilet. It was in fact first observed, that the effect of petroleum upon the hair was first observed, a Government officer having noticed that a partially bald-headed servant of his, when trimming the lamps, had a habit of wiping his oil-besmeared hands in his scanty locks, and the result was in a few months a much finer head of black, glossy hair than he ever had before. The oil was tried on horses and cattle that had lost their hair from the cattle plague, and the results were as rapid as they were marvellous. The manes and even the tails of horses, which had fallen out, were completely restored in a few weeks. These experiments were heralded to the world, but the knowledge was practically useless to the prematurely bald and gray, as no one in civilized society could tolerate the use of refined petroleum as a dressing for the hair. But the skill of one of our chemists has overcome the difficulty, and by a process known only to himself, he has, after very elaborate and costly experiments, succeeded in deodorizing refined petroleum, which renders it susceptible of being handled as delicately as the famous eau de cologne. The experiments with the deodorized liquid on the human hair were attended with the most astonishing results. A few applications, where the hair was thin and falling, gave remarkable tone and vigor to the scalp and hair. Every particle of dandruff disappeared on the first or second dressing, and the liquid, so searching in its nature, seems to penetrate to the roots at once, and set up a radical change from the start. It is well known that the most beautiful colors are made from petroleum, and, by some mysterious operation of nature, the use of this article gradually imparts a beautiful light brown color to the hair which by continued use, deepens to a black. The color remains permanent for an indefinite length of time, and the change is so gradual that the most intimate friends can scarcely detect its progress. In a word, it is the most wonderful discovery of the age, and well calculated to make the prematurely bald and gray rejoice.

We advise our readers to give it a trial, feeling satisfied that one application will convince them of its wonderful effects. Pittsburgh Commercial of Oct. 22, 1877.

The article is telling its own story to the hands of thousands who are using it with the most gratifying and encouraging results.

W. H. BULL & Co., Fifth Avenue Pharmacy, writes: "We have sold preparations for the hair for upward of twenty years, but have never had one so well as well or give such universal satisfaction. We therefore recommend it with confidence to our friends and the general public."

Mr. GUSTAVUS F. HALL, of the Oates Opera Troupe, writes: "After six weeks' use I am convinced, as are also my comrades, that your 'Carboline' has and is producing a wonderful growth of hair where I had none for years."

C. H. BERRY, of the Jennie Night Combination, writes: "After using your 'Carboline' three weeks I am convinced that bald heads can be 're-haired.' It is simply wonderful in my case."

D. F. ARTHUR, chemist, Holyoke, Mass., writes: "Your 'Carboline' has restored my hair after everything else had failed."

JAMES E. POPE, attorney-at-law, No. Attleboro, Mass., writes: "For more than 20 years a portion of my head has been as smooth and free from hair as a billiard ball, but some eight weeks ago I was induced to try your Carboline, and the effect has been simply wonderful. Where no hair has been seen for years there now appears a thick growth, and I am convinced that by continuing its use I shall have as good a head of hair as I ever had. It is growing now nearly as rapidly as hair does after it is cut."

CARBOLINE

Is now presented to the public without fear of contradiction as the best Restorative and Beautifier of the Hair the world has ever produced.
